BRENAU WOMEN'S COLLEGE

BUBBLES YEARBOOK

1993

To find satisfaction in being rather than in seeming; to find joy in doing rather than in dreaming; to be prepared for service thereby earning the right to be served; to be pure in heart; vigorous in mind, discreet in action; to love deeply, fear nothing, hate never; to enjoy that freedom which comes from knowledge of the "Truth"; to be modestly conscious of the limitations of human knowledge and serenely confident of the limitless reaches of human endeavor this is the ideal of Brenau.

— H.J. Pearce

One Centennial Circle • Gainesville, Georgia 30501

In March 26, 1992, Dr. John S. Burd, president of Brenau College, announced that Brenau College would convert to Brenau University during or before the 1993 Fall Quarter. Brenau officially became a university on October 6, 1992. To christen the conversion from college to university, the faculty and students walked under the newly unveiled gate. Fall Convocation 1992 commemorated the transition to Brenau University. During the convocation, the Reverend Donald Harp delivered the convocation address. The Brenau Women's College students showed their university spirit, as pictured, after Fall Convocation.

Freshmen presidential candidates Renate Simpson and Merf Waudby explained to Tiffany Young their fundraising projects.

True Colors

Leah Tutton and Amy Richie vied for freshmen votes.

Jennifer Anne Podolec, Lisa Overstreet, Rebecca Mladenoff and Natalie Polk sang in honorary to the senior class at the student/faculty picnic.

Brenau Women's college has 500 students enrolled. Some have chosen Brenau because of her family atmosphere. Some have chosen Brenau because of her traditions. Whatever the reason, we're all proud to be a part of the Brenau family.

Freshmen Streak

Color them black and gold as the 1992 Freshmen class arrived eagerly to begin the college experience. Orientation week was hectic, while freshmen jumped from back to back meetings, placement tests and Rush.

FRESHMEN REVIEW:

"I first made my decision to come to Brenau after attending a winter weekend my senior year. After finally getting here, I finally realized that I was on my own. Being here at Brenau in a small atmosphere you have a better chance of getting to know different kinds of people and appreciating each one for who they are. I'm starting to feel at home." — Stella Lyle

"My hall sat together and talked on the second night of orientation. We quickly found out that we could all be friends and it was nice to know that there were other people in the same situation as me, as I, whatever ..." — Andrea Bruce

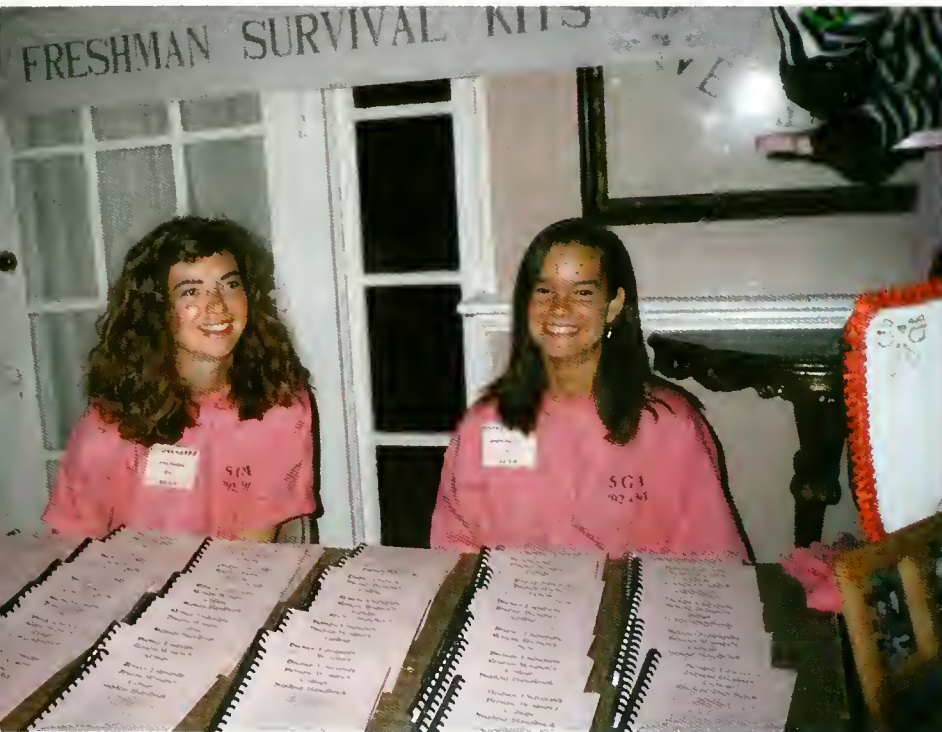

Bailey resident assistant Mali Savanh welcomed Chae Mallet, a theatre major from Augusta, Georgia.

Panhellenic Secretary Jennifer Anne Podolec was on hand to answer questions about Rush.

Student Government Association President Alyson Dooley and treasurer Robyn Polcyn handed freshman survival kits during freshman registration.

Veronika Uhlirova and Revecca Mladenoff made extra money working for Morrison's.

Erin Taylor and Kim Duncan paired up for the three-legged race during the Fall Frenzy games.

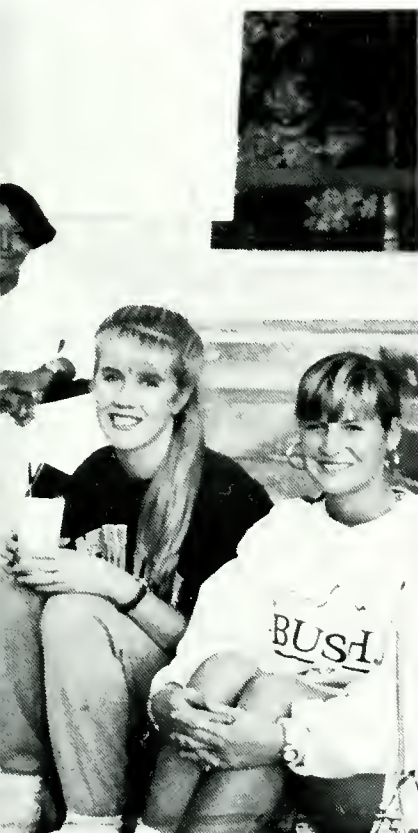

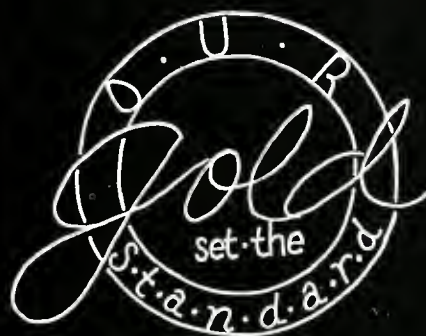

Stephanie Byrd caught the fall quarter blues.

Fall Frenzy

Alex Rossi competed in the national singles division in Corpus Christie, Texas. She is the #1 ranked singles player at Brenau.

fall frenzy helped students get some rest and relaxation. This event was sponsored by residence directors Lisa Langford and Tia Smith. We'll Be There For You

Parents Weekend, according to sophomore Brandie Bierman, "was great. My parents were cool. We shopped, we ate, and toured the school."

Parents Weekend started on Friday, October 23, 1992, when parents arrived. Saturday morning, the parents were welcomed, and enjoyed a speaker in Pearce Auditorium. Morrison's provided lunch and then it was off to the field games. The field games, sponsored by Recreation Board, were Fun For All with lots of activities, food, and gifts. The Greeks displayed their houses to the parents during their Open House. Then the fun continued when the Women of Brenau presented its annual talent show. To wrap up the weekend, a worship service was held on Sunday. Afterwards, we had to say goodbye to our parents.

Tiffany and Yvonne Young, from Shreveport, Louisiana, embraced for the camera during Parents Weekend.

Mr. Hopkins attempted to pass the egg to daughter Holly Hopkins during the egg relay.

The afternoon games drew a crowd especially everybody's favorite, the balloon toss.

Kara Schneider and her mother smile during the festivities.

"We are a nation at peace. But being at peace with others and being at peace with ourselves are different things. The one we have achieved. The other, we can and will," said President George Bush. Mr. Bush's platform includes regulatory relief, expanding trade, creating jobs, ending welfare dependency, and arms control. "This will be my last campaign. And I plan to fight as never before." Democrat

Arkansas Governor Bill Clinton and Tennessee Senator Al Gore have a plan to change America. Mr. Clinton's plan includes creating 8 million jobs, slash $140 billion in federal spending, reform schools, give every American the opportunity to borrow money for college and guarantee quality, affordable health care.

"The parties still haven't heard the wake-up call." Texan Ross Perot published United We Stand for the American people, which detailed the Ross Perot Action Plan: eliminate deficit, rebuild the American cities, banish illegal drugs, create an energy policy, and propose a fair tax system. According to Mr. Perot, "mud wrestlings and messages aimed at destroying your opponent and his loved ones won't work."

Source: Why I'm Back In The Race

In 1991, the race to elect the next President of the United States of America began. Candidates flooded our TV screens and radio stations as they fought to become a household name. Names such as Tsongas, Brown, Clinton, Buchanan and Cuomo became common. As the race began to heat up in preparation of the summer 1992 political conventions, scandals began to unfold. Another man, Texas billionaire Ross Perot, entered the race at this time, only to drop out for 15 weeks and then later re-enter the race. The Democratic Convention decided on Bill Clinton, Arkansas governor, as their nominee. It was also announced that his running mate would be Senator Al Gore. The Republican ticket was filled by the present President, George Bush, and Vice President Dan Quayle. After the candidates were chosen, platforms and projections for the next four years were introduced. Each candidate published numerous pieces of literature about how they think they can put America back on the right track by lowering the national debt, cleaning up our cities, and putting family values first.

In this election I don't think the candidates have been straightforward with the issues.

Dedicated To The Class Of '1943

Brenau women of 1943 hoped to recapture their days at Brenau by remembering the spirit "of the atmosphere that is characterized by the American way of life as depicted in the 1943 yearbook."

Some memorable times include Churchill meeting President Franklin Roosevelt. The best movie of 1943 was Casablanca. Paul Lukas and Jennifer Jones were the best actor and actress winners. Songs like, "People Will Say We're in Love," "Don't Get Around Much Anymore," and "Oh What a Beautiful Morning," were released in 1943. The average income in 1943 was $2,650 with one gallon of gas at 21¢ or 9¢ for bread. The American Broadcasting Company (ABC) was created in this year. Norman Rockwell created ROSIE THE RIVETER. The GIs carried pictures of pin-up girls. OKLAHOMA opened on Broadway in 1943. The TOM & JERRY cartoons were created. In the World Series, the New York Yankees defeated the St. Louis Cardinals. The "In" fashion was the military look with zoot suits and popular hep cats. BUBBLES 1943 was dedicated to Miss Eva Florence Pearce, Dean of Women.

BUBBLES 1993 is dedicated to the Golden Girls, from the class of 1943. We hope that our years at Brenau are as memorable as their years at Brenau. (For more class of '43 see page .)

Academics

President's Office

It is the responsibility of the office of the President to oversee all aspects of Brenau. Dr. John S. Burd has been president since 1986. Judy Gurley is the executive administrative assistant to the president.

Academic Affairs

The dean's office holds many responsibilities on campus. The academic dean is assisted by her personnel in overseeing the teaching faculty, the library, and the registrar's office. The final say so in dropping or adding classes comes from the dean's office. The dean also has the responsibility for the academic approval of applicants to Brenau.

Student Development Office is in charge of the well being of the students here at Brenau. The staff provides a secure environment for students to mature into adults. They are there to help with any problems that might arise; they provide counseling and support to students in need.

Student Health Services exists to provide health care to Brenau students. Both mental and physical health is dealt with by the staff. A trained counselor and registered nurse are also available to students.

Institutional Advancement

Brenau's Office of Institutional Advancement is a busy place on campus. It's members oversee Admissions, Development and Public Relations, and Alumni Affairs. This office also participates in the organizing of May Day Weekend, The President's Club Dinner, quarterly publications, The Volunteer Appreciation Banquet, development campaigns, and student recruitment.

The Admissions office consists of the undergraduate and weekend admission process overseeing all incoming freshmen applications and transfers. The admissions office is now located in the Feldmann House and is busy all year round recruiting students by hosting visitations and working with the Golden S.T.A.R.s.

Admissions

Students, faculty and staff are all served by the Office of the Registrar as it provides course schedules, registration, class rolls, grade reports, transcripts, enrollment verifications, and Georgia Tuition Equalization Grants. In addition, graduating students are provided with audits of degree requirements, academic regalia, diplomas, and honors determination.

"The Registrar's Office is a great place to get to know everyone on campus — we deal with all students and faculty." Nellie Hoenes

The Financial Aid Office assisted more than 300 Women's College Students in the 1992-1993 school year with scholarships, grants, loans, and campus work.

Humanities & Communication Arts

The Department of Education contributes to the liberal arts education of all students through its programs and teachings. It also is comprised of the disciplines for Psychology and Education with concentrations offered in the areas of Early Childhood Education, Middle Grades Education, and Special Education.

“The excellent student is one who is responsible, consistent, eager to learn as much as possible, not simply what is required minimally, and who is receptive to new ideas and concepts. The excellent student also has a positive attitude, and a burning curiosity to know more about the world around him/her.” — Dr. Jim Southerland

The Humanities and Communications Arts department gives each student opportunities to improve communication skills as well as gain an appreciation for history, government, literature and philosophy. This department offers majors in English, History-Political Science and Mass Media, and foreign language is offered as a minor.

Nursing

The purpose of the nursing program is to prepare a nursing generalist for beginning positions in professional practice in a variety of health care settings and for graduate study in nursing. Upon satisfactory completion of the program, graduates are eligible to write the State Board of Nursing examination for licensure as a Registered Nurse. The first two years for a nursing student includes finishing the Women's College core curriculum. The last two years involve classes such as Health Assessment, Reproductive Health, Community Health, and Critical Care Nursing.

Morrison's

Honors

The H.G.H. Senior Honor Society exists to promote the interest of Brenau College and to serve the welfare of the college student body as a whole, without regards to personal, social, class or political affiliation. Each year the society will select seven new members from the junior class of the college, who in turn will select, at a proper time, their own successors. Election to membership in H.G.H. is based on merit and merit alone. Neither politics nor fraternal consideration play any part in the election of H.G.H. What H.G.H. strives to secure is the election of seven outstanding students from the junior class. Above all, it will invite only students whose loyalty to Brenau College is proven and beyond question. The members of H.G.H. refuse to discuss the organization or its affairs with outsiders. Members are not allowed to speak its name. However, it is to be known that the society is dedicated to the interest of the college and that its every action is motivated by the desire to serve these interests.

STUDENT LIFE

Amy Witke speaks for this group of rats, "We were all close and spirited up on Mt. Bailey which made Rat Week lots of fun."

Seniors await the arrival of Freshmen rats.

It Was Cheesy!

— Renee Taylor

Rats, please name the sculpture on front campus? Where were the two lakes that used to be on campus? Say the Honor Code. Who are the founders of Brenau?

A Hole in the Center of the Universe. The lakes were where the ampitheater is now. I pledge myself to Brenau . . . Founders, what founders? We're clueless.

Lori Bunce, Kim Weathers, and Melissa Coop show the Sophomore class just how "Shamless" they can be.

Merf Waudby was quite the rat. Her comments were, "Rat Week brought out the animal in me and punk rats rule."

Angel Kimsey, Erin Taylor, and Trent Wetherington show their spirit. Lori says, "Rat Week brought everyone closer."

The sophomore class was stoic during Rat Week. Their chant of rat, rat, rat . . . encouraged the freshmen to join in the fun. Alyssa Ekey said, "It was interesting being on the other side for the first time and having the support of the Seniors."

Katherine Cadena listens as Jeannie Ackermen explains the art of stringing popcorn to Lisa Overstreet and Jennifer Carlton.

I think I can! Sandra Mobley and Allison Merrill string popcorn intently while Lisa Herbst gazes at the tree.

Cameron Harvey, Kathleen Illges, and Ashli Duggar work hard to decorate the Christmas tree in Yonah lobby.

Amy Witke and Renee Taylor enjoyed the hot chocolate provided by B.F.A. during the annual decorating of the tree.

Christmas At Brenau

What does Christmas at Brenau mean to you?

A time to be together and share in a beautiful family atmosphere. — Amy Wittke

Brenau Silhouettes is an organization devoted to the purpose of strengthening awareness of minority concerns and strengthening relationships among all students.

Q

What does Black History Month mean ?

A

"Black History is a month set aside to educate all races, including Black Americans. It is a way of educating society, reminding blacks not to forget where you came from and not to forget where they can go. Also to whites, it says that as blacks, we are not slaves anymore. It is a month of acknowledging." — Carol McCoy

Silhouette member Terri Lyons reads an excerpt from a poem written by a black author.

Silhouettes designed this t-shirt to promote the organization's main goal of valuing diversity.

Mrs. Elfreda McRae, principal of Enota Elementary, was the guest speaker for the MLK Winter convocation. She reiterated that we have yet to fulfill Dr. King's dreams of racial harmony.

Peter Bergman was the judge selected for Miss Bubbles 1993. Mr. Bergman is better known as Jack Abbot on the highly rated soap opera "The Young and the Restless," and an earlier role as Dr. Cliff Warner on "All My Children." His portrayal of Jack has earned him the Outstanding Actor Award for the past two years.

Mr. Bergman is a fun-loving husband and father. In his spare time, he is a member of a basketball team and loves spending time with his family.

The 1993 Bubbles staff would like to extend a sincere "Thank You" to Mr. Bergman and to Katie Marcoux for making this year's Miss Bubbles contest a success.

Contestants were nominated by their organization to have their picture taken by Fred Brewer. Bubbles 1993 would like to thank everyone involved in this event.

Dear Katie —

Here are my choices. I've done more juggling of these pictures — the decision was most difficult. I'm not a great believer in beauty pageants and made my decisions based on which women I would most want to meet. They were all beautiful. Great good luck in your efforts.

All my best,
Peter Bergman

The Miss Brenau 1993 pageant was a tribute to the roaring twenties. This pageant is annually sponsored by the Recreation Association. Julie Bridges and Nikki Herrin were co-chairwomen of the event. Master of ceremonies was Mr. Charles Gibbs.

The pageant opened with a dance number highlighting the twenties in which the fourteen contestants participated in. The Miss Brenau pageant consisted of an essay, talent and interview all judged by faculty members and guest judges.

Special recognition was given to Erin Taylor for Best Essay, Charlotte Crosby for Most Devoted, Debbie Kemp for Miss Congeniality, Crisla Harris for Best Talent and Chrissy Acosta for choreographing the pageant. Tau Sigma performed to the tune of "42nd Street."

Judges were Susan Sealy, Lillian Welch, Carol Lunday, Tony Hamilton and Jay Kemp. The final interview question asked to the contestants was "This is the year of the woman. What can you do to have an impact on women's issues?"

Miss Brenau 1992 Terri Lyons crowned Charlotte Crosby as Miss Brenau 1993. Crisla Harris was first runner-up. Debbie Kemp was second runner-up. MG Anderson was third runner-up. Renate Simpson was fourth runner-up. Miss Brenau received a $500 scholarship.

Rauschenberg Exhibit

Brenau adjunct faculty member Maya Vachtangadze gets an autograph from the world-renown artist Robert Rauschenberg during the opening of an exhibition of his prints on display October 7 through December 4 at the Simmons Visual Arts Center. The exhibit featured 75 prints and one original work of art. The exhibit featured two videos highlighting Rauschenberg's work as a set and costume designer and choreographer for the Trisha Brown Company.

Bete Todd Wages Vintage Collection

The Bete Todd Wages collection of antique dresses numbered more than 5,000 pieces when donated to Brenau on November 14, 1992. Wages, who attended Brenau Women's College in the early 1940's, has been collecting antique clothing and accessories for nearly 45 years. She has donated the collection in memory of her aunt, Bertha M. Todd, who taught at Brenau in the 1920s and 1930s. The exhibit is located in the former Cottage Victorian building.

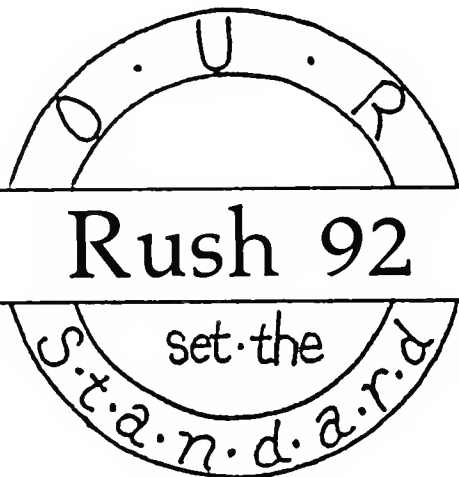

Hispanic Creativity

Brenau University presented "Hispanic Imprints" from January 19 through March 1, 1993 in the Simmons Visual Arts Center. The exhibit celebrated Hispanic creativity by featuring a collection of works by 11 artists whose work has been influenced by the Hispanic experience. A traditional dance performed by "Group de Danzas" Colombianas" highlighted Hispanic music and dance.

All we want to do is a ZOOM! ZOOM! Don't say SKEEWEE unless your worthy, you know who you are! Tennessee! Rockster — country music? Girl, don't go there! We're still waiting for our 20 pearls! Congrats to Cheesy Deb for her performances in "Music Man" and "Streetcar." TLC found a sparkle in her life and is looking for a job in the real world. Silent Storm — when will he call? You're the only "pretty girl" who got 16 hours, when the rest of us "pretty girls" only got 5 hours! Rosey got accident insurance. Rockster had a ritual. Boo, also known as the bottomless pit, is still in love with her main squeeze. Rosey, Rockster, TLC and Boo rocked in Atlanta with the Braves. We're waiting for the rest of the tadpoles to jump on the lily pad. Rosey wants George and the Caribbean! We will dearly miss our graduating Soror TLC as she dances into the real world. Much AKA love to all sorors! S-K-E-E-W-E-E!!!!

Alpha Chi Omega

As the summer ended, and a new year began Alpha Chi Omega came together . . . one last time for our seniors, yet just the beginning for others.

We gained eight new pledges during rush that would strengthen our sisterhood.

In the year preceeding, Alpha Chi Omega had seven beautiful May Court Attendants. Kathleen Illges received the honor of HGH. Alpha Chi dominated the day in Greek games and won every event.

Pledge weekend was eventful at JoEllyn's Lake house. Stefanie — where is your car? Robyn got rid of the old and moved to a new. Marcia finally fell in love. Lisa how many miles is it from Gainesville to Athens? Beth what are you going to put on your resume? Marion do you really use those as shoulder pads? Murray, Tuesday, Angel, Marcia, and Heather do you really like to dance? Beverly and JoEllyn how was that internship? Kat, Jeannette, Robin, and Stefanie is it lonesome all the way down there? Could our new initiates make any more weird noises? Congratulations Dawn on your wonderful new major!

Another year has ended and we must say goodbye to a group of seniors that we love, respect, and will miss immensely. It is here in Alpha Chi Omega that we find it possible "to strike on the lyre of the universe only the notes happiness, joy, and peace. For this is our symphony".

"Way to go girls, I am so proud!"

Chi Omega

The Eta Zeta Chapter of Chi Omega has had a fun and rewarding year. 1992-1993 was off to a great start with our 9 beautiful pledges — Ava, Elissa, Charlotte, Jennifer, Kim, Melissa, Mary, Amy, and Stacey. Trips to Athens and Atlanta were abundant! Sale, Talley, and Christy were Lambda Chi Alpha groupies ... Kara had fun at Alpha Tau Omega at Tech ... Who is Jamie's man du jour? ... Eleanor, Tiff, Becky, Brandie, Alissa, Kimmy, and Libby stayed married ... Susan really got married, we love you Rosetti's! Alice got a new man ... meanwhile, Sarah, Steph, Robin, and Marge were single and lovin' it ... well, sometimes. Kathy, we missed you, glad you're back! Seniors ... Eleanor, Alissa, and Sarah, we honor thee and will miss you! Here's to 93!

Kara and Brandie are putting on their best Chi Omega smiles!

Jamie and Sarah are wild and crazy Chi-O Girls!

Alpha Gamma Delta

Alpha Gam girls having fun on the beach; remembering their sorority even away from Brenau.

Alpha Gamma Delta started the year off with a bang. We had a very successful Rush 1992. Then after Rush, we started in on a very busy school year. Trips to Helen, Parent's Weekend, and the Mexican Fiesta Pledge Social. Then a weekend of rest and relaxation with a Pledge-Sister retreat in Alabama, SLC, and much, much more. Most of all, we will never forget the hard work, dedication, and love our seniors have shared with us. We will miss all of you — Ashli, Sissy, Meredith, Mary, and Lori. The circle of friendship that binds us together can never be broken and only grows stronger with each new addition.

Alpha Delta Pi

The Lambda Chapter of Alpha Delta Pi had a great year starting off with eight new Alphas. We began our social season with the Alpha Chi cocktail party and finished it with a real bang at Cotillion. Oh boy, oh boy, oh boy, We love our president Jenny! Kim and Elise were the ghosts of room 4. Beth is that food or hay you're chewing? Deann, are you graduating or planning a wedding? How's the MCAT-KA Val? Angie, 22 and still waiting, The wear-the wrapper Hillary — what's in Athens? Stephanie is the midnight rider to Macon. Katie — can you keep a roommate? Amy, Gab, and Lisa, — the three stooges. Ty lou ready to jump into camels to see their men. JoEllen who's wearing your BMW tag in Atlanta? Kimberly and CarolAnn ready for that Mrs. Degree in cooking. Overall, we had a great year! We'll miss everyone, especially the Seniors — "We honor thee."

Come on, — Smile Beth. We Love You.

Tri Delta's pledges!

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Delta Delta Delta started off the year with nine beautiful Deltas and made Rush Honor Roll. Julie stayed busy planning Miss Brenau. We two-stepped with Dean Dollar and went to Helen for Halloween. Where is Squirrel Hollow? ... What Rocky VII?!

We enjoyed our candlelights for Kristen, Jennifer, and finally Lee. Democratic Dooley, what habit did you break in two days? Cole, we're glad you are back with YMCA. Christie, is there anything you don't have a story for? Keg, don't you know you drink water in the woods?

Does anyone else have an HB? No smoking in the hall? Where do we hang out now? We love our DDD sister Patty Peach. CeCe, we're glad you're back, but boy you are loud. Dancing to TV's greatest hits. What a great animal Edie makes.

All in all it has been another great year for Tri Delt and we'll miss our Seniors.

Show your Delta Delta Delta spirit!

I'd like to be the sort of friend that you have been to me I'd like to be the help that you are always glad to be; I'd like to mean as much to you each minute of the day As you have meant, old friend of mine, to me along the way.

ZTA

ZETA TAU ALPHA

The 1991-1992 school year, the Omicron Chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha made a lasting impression. Zeta welcomed nine pledges into the fraternity by mid fall quarter thanks to Stacy Lynn. Kris Davis became the Pledge class President. Sonia Jarrard, Chapter President and member of HGH Honor Society leads us with integrity. Our fraternity joined together to help the community by volunteering for the American Diabetes Association, Cystic Fibrosis, Adopt a Highway, Hurricane Andrew, and Halloween Havoc just to name a few. The annual hoedown was a huge success, and the Big-Little Halloween Party was fun as always. Jeannie Ackerman gave everyone a touch of energy with her part in "The Music Man." Pledge formal enabled us to show off our wonderful Pledge Class. Nikki Herrin, co-chairman of the Miss Brenau Pageant, pulled off a wonderful and successful event. May Day and Graduation drew near and the ZTA's went out with a bang. Zeta Tau Alpha accomplished what she set out to do.

"I will remember the people and my friends. I will carry the memories of our friendship throughout the rest of my life. My sophomore year, everyone was gone except for a select few. We made up things to do, playing stupid games, singing songs, and repeatedly watching movies. We got so bored, we would walk to the movie theatre or to the mall." — Lucinda Bryant

"I will remember the support of the school with helping AKA get started. Brenau has taught me to deal with life by throwing me small obstacles to overcome. It helped me deal with all types of people." — Carol McCoy

BUBBLES '93 EXTRA is jammed packed of pictures you thought we had left out of the '93 spring delivery yearbook. What's BUBBLES without Greek Week, Class Day, May Day or Graduation? The BUBBLES yearbook for 1993 is now complete. When flipping through these extra pages, let the good times roll!

Class Day '93

Class Day honored the graduating seniors and the achievements of the underclassmen. Each class dedicated a good-bye song to the Senior class before being led to the Crow's Nest. The seniors, dressed in black robes, led the underclassmen, dressed in white, to the Crow's Nest. The seniors ascended the Crow's Nest steps as a final tribute to Brenau. When they descended, each senior "robed" a secret sister from the junior class. The newly robed seniors were honored with the traditional "Seniors We Honor Thee." After Class Day activities, the yearbook staff distributed the 1993 BUBBLES yearbooks.

Graduating senior Kerry Green looks on as she and classmates are honored at the Crow's Nest.

Juniors Chrissy Acosta and Stephanie Wade are trying to dance their way home to Brenau.

May Day 93

The wrapping of the May Pole, the elegance of the May Queen and her court, the welcome home-coming of alumnae from around the country were just a few of the time-honored traditions celebrated during May Day Weekend. Kathleen Illges was crowned 1993 May Queen. She was accompanied by May Prince Ashli Duggar and May Princess Sarah Lamb.

Senior court members included Kerry Green, Lee Mann, Sonia Jarard and Jane Wall. Junior court members were Rae Marie Brewer, Gabrielle Chaput, Stephanie Dew and Robyn Polcyn. Sophomore court members were Cameron Harvey, Marion Hudson, Beverly Jordan and Tammy White. Freshmen court members were M.G. Anderson, Amy Richie, Holly Hopkins and Kim Weathers.

May Queen Kathleen Illges arrived in a horse-drawn carriage with Ashli Duggar and Sarah Lamb.

Graduation 1993

In 1879, the first class of young women graduated from The Georgia Baptist Female Seminary. The class of 1900 marked another first — they were the first group to graduate from the renamed Brenau Women's College. Now, the class of 1993 has secured their place in the school's history as the first class to graduate from the Women's College of Brenau University. The annual commencement ceremony was held May 30 in the Georgia Mountains Center.

Georgia State Sen. Jane

R. Hemmer, representing the 49th Congressional District, delivered the commencement address to the 94 graduating seniors, their friends and family, and faculty and administrators of Brenau. The focus of her address was on the responsibilities graduates should assume in their communities.

"You cannot presume that you can solve all the problems of the world with the wave of a magic wand," Hemmer said. "But you do have the ability to act on these problems, and you must realize you can do much to improve the quality of life for yourself and for your community. The price of education is responsibility."

Dr. Dave Giberson rescues the Brenau data base tapes when the fire alarm sounded in Pearce Auditorium during the 1993 baccalaureate ceremony.

Tammy Young, a nursing major from Talking Rock, Ga., was awarded the 1993-94 Baxter-Bryan Senior Scholarship. Young is the third recipient of this scholarship and will receive full room, board and tuition from the scholarship fund for the 1993-94 school year. Pictured with Young (center) are members of the selection committee: (clockwise from the left) Dr. Veta Massey, chairwoman of the nursing department; Thelma Green, member of the Brenau Board of Trustees; Dr. Larry Andrews, vice president for administrative services; Dr. Lynnea Halberg, vice president for student development; Dr. William Ware, chairman of the education department; Dr. John Burd, president; Betty Norton, trustee.

Carol Taylor received 3 awards at the baccalaureate ceremony. These include the Janice Turk Adkins Award, Steven W. Newell Award and Ocie Rich Pope Award.
